Springfield Symphony's Musical Petting Zoo

a fun and hands-on way to learn about musical instruments

The Springfield Symphony Musical Petting Zoo is a fun and informative demonstration and hands-on exhibit of musical instruments for children. Each child participating in the program will receive an Activity Book that includes information, coloring activities, and games about orchestra instruments. Children will gain a basic knowledge of instrument families and will learn how to play many instruments featured in the orchestra. Presented by Kate Forman Quayle.

Provided in collaboration with the School Union #28 Family Network.
Funded by the Mass. Department of Early Education and Care and the Kittredge Foundation
